ASSASSINATION OF NOTED EDUCATIONIST

Dr. Herman Liu Shot In Bubbling Well Road

MR. HAROLD PORTER STILL MISSING

Shanghai, To-day.
Mr. Harold Porter, Vice-Chairman of the Shanghai Municipal Council, is still missing, and the police are appealing for information concerning his movements since noon on March 24.

Mr. Porter was last seen leaving the Shanghai Club on the evening of that day. Before his mysterious disappearance he had been suffering from ill-health, and one theory put forward is that he has lost his memory.—Reuter.

TEXT OF ANGLO-ITALIAN PACT APPROVED?

London, To-day.
The usual weekly Cabinet meeting was held yesterday.

According to informed quarters, the Cabinet discussed plans for accelerating rearmament, and the attitude of the Trade Unions.

It is also stated that the Ministers had before them the provisional text of the Anglo-Italian Treaty, which was approved. —Trans-Ocean.

MEXICAN OIL DISPUTE

Mexico City, To-day.
President Cardenas has ordered that 20 per cent. of export sales of petroleum be reserved as payment for the expropriated foreign properties.

The Finance Minister will also fix as soon as possible for a similar purpose a percentage of income from petroleum sold within Mexico.

Mr. Francis Bickett, the international financier, is still conferring with the Finance Minister in regard to the proposed sale of a major portion of the Mexican output.

ANOTHER INJUNCTION

Meanwhile, the foreign companies have filed another injunction questioning the constitutional

Japanese-Inspired Murder Gang Held Responsible

Shanghai, To-day.

Dr. Herman Liu, the Chinese President of the University of Shanghai, an American Baptist institution, was assassinated this morning in the International Settlement.

In the subsequent battle between the assailants and police, Sergeant G. H. Wade, a Yorkshireman, was wounded in the ankle while one of Dr. Liu's assailants was killed and three Chinese pedestrians wounded. One suspect was arrested.

Dr. Liu, who was widely known as a great Chinese patriot, was shot through the head while standing at a bus stop at the corner of Bubbling Well and Ferry Roads.

It transpires that several Chinese involved in the murder scattered immediately after the shooting.

Sergeant Wade chased one of the men, who drawing a revolver, shot the Sergeant in the ankle and made good his escape.

GUN BATTLE

Meanwhile other police had rushed to the scene, and in the ensuing gun battle three pedestrians were wounded, one of them seriously.

A Chinese constable succeeded in capturing a Chinese man who later is alleged to have confessed that he was "hired to kill" Liu because he was a traitor to China.

The alleged statement is pooh-poohed in Chinese circles in which Dr. Liu was known for a great Chinese patriot.

HUPEH MAN

Born in Hanyang, Hupeh Province, the late Dr. Liu was 42 years old.

He was a Bachelor of Science (Soochow), Master of Arts (Chicago) and Doctor of Philosophy (Columbia).

validity of the expropriation.

They argue that President Cardenas might find his position difficult should they technically win, if he accepted a cash deposit from Mr. Bickett on a deal which had an illegal basis.—Reuter.

JAPAN TAKES SERIOUS VIEW OF SHIP SALE REPORTS

Tokyo, To-day.

Japan is taking the purchasing of the China Merchants Steamship Navigation Company's fleet of ships by an American syndicate seriously.

First news of the purchase was published in Tokyo this morning having been received from Japanese correspondents in Hong Kong where the news appears to have originated.

It is pointed out that the deal has not yet been officially confirmed.

The "Asahi" declares that such a sale can only be to defeat the Japanese Navy and stop them from confiscating the ships which have been bottled up by the Japanese blockade of the China coast.—Our Own Correspondent.

Ideal House Attire

Cotton House Coat Just The Thing For Busy Hours

Dressy looking cotton house coats which can go bang into the suds is the modern woman's ideal home attire.

Every woman has one or more garments of the same type, but no matter how many she has collected fate wills that they all get mussed and soiled and dumped at the cleaner's at the same moment. That's life.

One is tempted to do splashy jobs in house coats, and even the least exertion is enough to take the freshness off anything one wears. So let's be glad of the new cotton house coats, and wear them for breakfast, for dusting, for leisurely Sundays, for shampoos, for washing dishes and for painting on china, if that's your hobby.

Very swish necklines, formal as those in old master portraits; neat waistlines which flatter the figure, step with the vogue in present day excellent colour combinations in interiors, zipper fastenings, generous cut and pretty print designs are among the excellences of the coats. In other words, to sum it up without hyperbole: This department is but nuts about these coats.

WHEN YOU CAN'T SLEEP

Counting sheep was formerly considered an unfailing cure for sleeplessness, and there was sound reason behind the idea. The monotonous train of thought with its setting of rural calm soothed until finally the mind became a blank and the patient dropped off to sleep.

Many of us are afraid of wakeful hours once we have retired to bed. A heavy supper or an exciting evening may have stimulated the mind to abnormal activity and our thoughts race on. Finally the body becomes restless, too; we begin to toss and turn, and out of all this disturbance the ugly bogey of insomnia thrusts its head. We dread that this experience should become a habit with us, and the more we worry the more wakeful we become, until at last Nature steps in and we fall asleep. Nature then takes her revenge for our excesses by making us late for the day's work next morning!

The person who is going to cure himself of sleeplessness quickly is the person who makes up his mind to ignore the trouble and not give it undue importance. He does not feel like sleeping, so he switches on the light and finds a light, quiet book to occupy his thoughts; knitting or a jigsaw puzzle will serve just as well. The great point is to refuse to let the mind dwell on any worrying or exciting subject by offering something else as a substitute.

SUN-TEASER. Shady as a parasol and pretty too. Olivia de Havilland, Warner Bros. star, sports a wide sombrero in black straw, edged with white, with white wool pom-poms and grosgrain ribbon tied under the chin. For wear with Spring prints or summer cottons.

Lingerie And The New Line

Favourite Styles And Colours

A question which is being much discussed at the moment, just as the Paris dressmakers are showing their new models, is whether the waistline is to be higher or whether it is to be lower. The answer appears to be that there will be a longer. Slimmer waist "area," but that the actual line will remain in its natural place, marked only by a few pleats or a suggestion of drapery.

Day and evening dresses will be moulded close to the figure from the bust to low on the hips. Drapery above the bust line and the new short boleros will, however, give the effect of a higher waist, and the appearance of a dropped line will be obtained by joining a pleated or full skirt to the bodice at a line low over the hips.

YOUTHFUL LINE

But in either case perfectly fitting undergarments are essential. Leading corsetiers have given careful study to the problem, and various types of foundation garments have been designed to give the high bust, the long waistline, and the slim hips which are characteristic of the youthful line of 1938.

Only the lightest and most supple materials are used and the desired effect, even for heavy and difficult figures, is achieved by the clever manipulation of the fabric and elastic, with only slight boning. For the slim figure of perfect proportions elastic net and lace are combined with taffetas and batiste, and these same materials are used for more youthful sets of separate brassiere and girdle. Zippers fasten practically every type of garment, and peach is the most popular colour. Other pastel shades are seen and a little black.

TAILORED STYLES

Daytime lingerie is simple this season, but it is cut and fitted with as much care as the gown under which it is worn. Plain tailored styles with an embroidered monogram only as trimming are the most practical, in heavy crepe de Chine or a dull crepe romaine. In order to avoid wrinkling of the material round the waist-line slips and chemises are cut on the bias, darted, and fitted on to brassiere tops of self material.

Slip sets have been popular during the last seasons and will remain in favour for wearing under summer frocks of printed silks and sheer materials. But if short skirts with slit hems become a leading fashion in suits and tailored dresses they will be replaced by chemise sets, although slips may be made to conform to the new silhouette.

DYED LACE

For the softer type of lingerie and for the evening lace trimming is always good, and charming effects are obtained by dyeing the lace exactly to match the material. Satin, triple nylon, and a rather crepey chiffon in icy tints of blue and pale pink, and in the dusty shades of blue and rose, are trimmed with matching laces of the Chantilly type. Heavier ivory and ecru laces are used to trim white and off-white materials, and ecru looks well on the new light champagne satin. Both ecru and black are used on sheer black.

FRILLY JACKETS

In contrast to the general tailored style of daytime lingerie night-gowns are "dressed-up" and trimmed. They may be cut on Empire lines with tie belts, on the bias with fitted brassiere tops and narrow shoulder straps, and trimmed with elaborate lace insets, threaded ribbons, and frills of self material. Simple gowns of nylon and satin with high-waisted effect have tiny boleros and short jackets gauged all over or made entirely of tiny frills. One in rose-pink chiffon has satin ribbon shoulder straps and a short jacket made of rows of frills in pink net, ribbon edged.

Heavy chiffon and triple nylon are the most popular materials and the fashion is for bright and unusual colours, sapphire blue, deep ochre, and cyclamen pink, as well as dusty pastels and peach. These materials are also attractive in prints of tiny bright floral designs, of narrow stripes and spots in soft pastel colourings. Dyed lace is also used on nightgowns for insets, for yokes, and for a covered shoulder treatment.

Colourful as a riot of flowers—fourteen glorious sun-grown colours printed on a dark ground fashions this upholstery cotton housecoat. The bodice is fitted. The sleeves arched. The neck open, and the skirt wider than the reach of your arms!

FLOWERED DESIGNS

A gown in aquamarine chiffon has a matching lace yoke and puff sleeves. There is a deep-V in front which meets the fitted tie-back belt. Another gown in peach satin has a yoke of Alencon lace cut into points extended over the shoulders. A narrow lace is used to edge the hem.

Do It This Way

To make candy rolls, shape beaten penoche or old-fashioned caramels into a one-inch roll. Sprinkle the roll with coconut, chocolate shot or broken nuts and cut into one-inch slices. Fancier rolls may be made by flattening the candy, and spreading it with nuts or with other confections before rolling.

Chocolate used in cooked or uncooked frosting should be cooled after it is melted. Otherwise it may cause the frosting to become too thin.

A "polenta" (Indian porridge) may be made by adding one cup of chopped meat, fish, fowl or grated cheese to three cups of hot cornmeal mush. Pour the combination into a pan to mold. Then cut into slices. Roll each slice in flour or cornmeal and brown it well in fat heated in a frying pan. Serve with left-over gravy, sauce or a creamed mixture.

A novelty taffy will appeal to children. Braid together two taffies of different colour and flavour. Each must be flavoured and coloured before it is pulled. It may then be braided and left in long strands or cut into two-inch strips.

In baking fruit or wedding cakes which require long, slow cooking, place a shallow pan filled with water in the oven. The water will help keep the cakes moist and give a glaze to their surfaces. Each cake should be allowed to cool in the pan in which it was baked.

Eggnog will improve in flavour if it is allowed to "ripen" a couple of days in a cold place. It may be stored in quart jars.

In serving new foods to a young child begin with a small portion of each food and arrange it as attractively as possible. Then gradually work up to larger portions.

Barcelona, To-day.
One of the first measures of the newly formed Republican Government was to bring the leader of the Republican army in the East, General Pozas, and the political commissar-general, Eduardo Castillo, before the court for neglect of duty.

Both officers were recently relieved of their posts.

Meanwhile, Barcelona was without light last night, since insurgent troops under Gen. Moscardos had occupied the large power plant 130 kilometres north-west of the city and had cut off the electricity supply.—Trans-Ocean.

FRANCO'S BELIEF

Burgos, To-day.

An early end of the civil war in Spain was predicted by General Francisco Franco when he concluded his review of the present military situation at a session of the insurgent Spanish Cabinet yesterday. Later the Cabinet adopted a series of administrative measures designed to meet the new situation created by the recent successes of General Franco's forces.

A war bulletin issued last night says that a Navarre brigade reached a watershed between Nopera Ribagorzan and Noguera Pallaresa Rivers which flow into the north of Lerida. Other columns occupied fortified positions in Morbat.

A Moorish army corps succeeded in consolidating its position and carrying out a series of important skirmishes.

Insurgent troops which are operating south of the River Ebro are pressing forward. It is still impossible to give their exact positions.—Trans-Ocean.

TORTOSA HOLDS OUT

Saragossa, To-day.

The insurgents continued to shell and bomb the coastal town of Tortosa yesterday without, however, being able to dislodge the Republican defenders.

The railway has been kept under constant fire, and it appears that the only courses open to the Government troops are a fight to a finish or surrender.—Trans-Ocean.

REPUBLICAN OFFENSIVE

Madrid, To-day.

A fresh Republican offensive on the Extremadura front is revealed in an official communique, which claims the capture of heights in the sector Puente de Bispo.—Reuter.

NEW C.-IN-C.

London, To-day.

British troops in Palestine and Trans-Jordan will henceforth be under the command of Major-General R. H. Haining.

The former commander-in-chief, Lt. Gen. A. P. Wavell, has been transferred to Aldershot.

Major-General Haining arrived in Jerusalem yesterday by plane. His predecessor, Lt. Gen. Wavell, leaves tomorrow (Friday) for London.—Trans-Ocean.

HITLER STRAINS HIS VOICE

Vienna, To-day.
Herr Hitler was unable to make a speech when he arrived at Salzburg yesterday as he has strained his voice through constant speaking in the plebiscite campaign.—Trans-Ocean.

BRITISH POLICY ON AUSTRIAN REFUGEES

London, To-day.

The Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, Mr. R. A. Butler, answered several questions in the Commons yesterday, about refugees from Austria.

Mr. Butler said that 15 countries, namely, Argentine, Belgium, Brazil, Colombia, the Dominican Republic, France, Guatemala, Haiti, Mexico, Nicaragua, Paraguay, Peru, Salvador, Sweden and Uruguay had replied favourably to the United States invitation to consider methods for providing assistance to political and Jewish refugees from Austria.

It was part of the United States' proposal that the financing of emergency emigration should be undertaken by private organisations in the respective countries.

Mr. Butler also said that the British Government would make the best possible use of this opportunity of co-operation with the United States.

BRITISH SYMPATHY

The British Government would naturally be sympathetic to any proposal for Jewish immigration into Madagascar which had the approval of the French Government, but did not contemplate approaching the French Government on the matter.

Mr. Butler hoped to make an early statement on the question of Austrian refugees receiving the protection of the League of Nations. The British Government were ready to do their part in such international action as was possible for dealing with the problem of refugees from Germany but did not consider feasible steps to secure for the racial minorities in Germany full civil liberties, either through direct negotiations or through the machinery of the League of Nations as suggested in the question.

COLONIAL OFFICE ATTITUDE

The Colonial Secretary, Mr. Ormsby Gore, answering a question on a similar subject said he had no information on how many Jews from Vienna and other parts of Austria had landed in Palestine or any Mandated Territory since March 12, but the conditions of immigration into Palestine were well-known and applied to Austrian Jews in the same way as to Jews in other parts of the world.—British Wireless.

SPECIAL DAVENTRY BROADCAST

London, To-day.

Speeches on the Empire Exhibition by the Prime Minister, the Leader of the Opposition and the Marquess of Lothian at Westminster Hall will be broadcast from Daventry to-day at 16.35 G.M.T. on G.S.H., G.S.G., G.S.F., G.S.D.—British Wireless.

FURTHER STRIKES IN TRINIDAD

Georgetown, To-day.

Further strikes have occurred at Trinidad where workers in sugar factories have stopped work and are demanding an increase in wages ranging from 15 to 20 per cent.

The employers have declared that the increase demanded is impossible owing to the low price of sugar in the world market.

A conference between employers and workers which has been going on, has now been postponed indefinitely.—Reuter.

SPAIN'S NEW GOVERNMENT

Paris, To-day.

The new Spanish Republican Government is composed of the following:—

Prime Minister and Minister for War, Dr. Negrin;
Foreign Affairs, Senor Alvarez Del Vayo;

Interior, Senor Paoline Gomez; Agriculture, Senor Arce; Justice, Senor Gonzalez Pena; Finance, Senor Mendez Aspe; Labour, Senor Ayguade; Communications, Senor de los Rios; Education, Senor Segundo Blanco.—Trans-Ocean.

The Insurgent Spanish General, Virginio Cabanellas, who had been taken prisoner in the course of the civil war died in Madrid, according to reports from insurgent Spanish sources, says a Trans-Ocean message from Paris.

T.U.C. DEMAND REMOVAL OF SPAIN EMBARGO

London, To-day.

The Foreign Secretary, Lord Halifax, and the Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, Mr. R. A. Butler, met members of the General Council of the Trades Union Congress at the Foreign Office yesterday afternoon.

Congress members put forward a suggestion regarding the removal of the embargo on the despatch of arms and munitions to the Spanish Government. A general discussion of the Spanish conflict in all its aspects then took place and Lord Halifax explained in detail the British Government's point of view.—British Wireless.

FLYING CLUBS' SUBSIDY

London, To-day.

The Under-Secretary for Air, Colonel Muirhead, answering a Commons' question, said that on January 31st, there were approximately 7,100 flying members in subsidised flying clubs under training.

$40,000 had been provided as a subsidy payment during the present financial year to pilots of light aeroplane clubs.—British Wireless.

HAVE YOU FALSE TEETH?

OVER 10,000 DENTISTS ADVISE
THIS NEW, BETTER WAY TO KEEP THEM CLEAN & GERM FREE

"I have tested 'Steradent' carefully in my surgery and find that it definitely does clean the most filthy dentures, removing tartar and tobacco stains entirely after three or four immersions. In my test cases no brushing whatever has been done. Prolonged immersion in 'Steradent' did not cause any damage to the dentures." This report from a well-known Dentist is just one of many hundreds of similar unsolicited letters from members of the Dental Profession who have given 'Steradent' a clinical test.

The 'Steradent' formula is a new, scientific discovery. Its sole use is to clean and purify false teeth, and it does this as nothing else has ever done before. Just shake a little 'Steradent' powder in a glass of warm water. Stir well. Leave your false teeth, plates and bridges in it while you dress or for overnight, then just rinse. Every stain disappears. Plates regain their wholesome, flesh-pink colour. Dingy, discoloured teeth become beautifully clean, lustrous and natural-looking. Your plates feel so smooth, cool, comfortable—no odour, or unpleasant taste. Every tiny crevice is cleaned, purified, sterilised. Brushing is a thing of the past—'Steradent' is so much more thorough and efficient, and is guaranteed harmless. Satisfactory results in every case. "I consider 'Steradent' to be the best denture cleaner in existence," said Mr. W. L. D. S., R.C.S., Ed., a leading Dentist, when writing recently upon the subject of denture hygiene.

Agents: IMPERIAL CHEMICAL INDUSTRIES (CHINA) LIMITED, HONGKONG.

WARNING: Refuse imitations and inferior substitutes. They may damage your plates beyond repair. Insist upon 'Steradent' and take no chances.

NAVAL BACHELORS MAKE NO COMPLAINTS OVER MARRIAGE ALLOWANCE CUT

London, To-day.

In reply to questions in the House of Commons regarding the effects of the proposed marriage allowances scheme, the First Lord of the Admiralty, Mr. A. Duff Cooper, said that orders would be issued to the Fleet on April 8 to provide an increase in the rate of marriage allowance for naval officers to be payable in certain instances to ensure that no married officer will suffer.

A White Paper will be issued as soon as possible.

Every married officer afloat will be better off under the scheme than before, and no married officer ashore or afloat will be worse off.

The only ones who would be worse off were bachelors, and to their credit, not a single complaint had come from them.—Reuter.

TOLERATION SOUGHT FOR POLITICAL FOES

London, To-day.

The British Government has addressed notes to the Spanish Government and the insurgents appealing to them in the event of further retreat by the Government troops on the Catalan front, that toleration shall be shown to political prisoners in hospitals.—Reuter.

Trans-Ocean adds that the appeal urges respect of private property rights, and refraining from committing atrocities on prisoners and hostages.

The notes were handed in at military headquarters at Barcelona and Burgos.

ANGLO-ITALIAN AGREEMENT WARNING

Rome, To-day.

Well-informed quarters here state that too much reliance should not be placed on the forecasts appearing in both the Italian and British press of the clauses of the Anglo-Italian treaty.

CARDINAL INNITZER'S DECLARATION ON ANSCHLUSS

Seventy-Five-Minute Audience With Pope

PREVIOUS STATEMENT NOT ANNULLED BUT SUPPLEMENTED

Vatican City, To-day.

In a statement to "Osservatore Romano" before leaving for Vienna, Cardinal Innitzer, who had a 75-minute audience with the Pope, declared that the declaration of the Austrian bishops should not be interpreted as approving anything incompatible with the liberty of the Church or as an obligation of conscience on Catholics by the state, or the Nazi Party. Particularly, the Bishops demanded that all regulations relating to schools and bringing up youth be in accordance with the natural rights of parents and the principles of the Catholic Church.

Propaganda against religion and the Church must be prohibited. — Reuter.

CONCORDAT ISSUE

Rome, To-day.

Under the headline "Declaration of the Austrian Episcopate," the Vatican newspaper "Osservatore Romano" publishes in the German language a declaration signed by Cardinal Innitzer stating that the declaration of the Austrian bishops was not intended as an expression of approval of anything irreconcilable with the law of God and the freedom and rights of the Catholic Church.

The Austrian Bishops demanded that in all questions affecting the Concordat, no change should be made without previous agreement with the Holy See.

The right of Catholics to proclaim the Catholic faith and Christian principles for all departments of human life, must be defended and maintained.—Trans-Ocean.

"REPRIMAND" DENIED

Rome, To-day.

Assertions that Cardinal Innitzer was "reprimanded" by the Vatican for his recent initiative in Austria, were semi-officially denied in Vatican City last night.

It is stated that the declaration in "Osservatore Romano" is not to be regarded as an annulment but as a supplement to the proclamation of the Austrian bishops.

Whereas this latter declaration was of a political nature, yesterday's statement was aimed at illuminating the dogmatic religious aspect of the problem, namely that changes in the present status of the Catholic Church in Austria, in the opinion of the Vatican, could only be brought about by direct negotiations between the Holy See and the German Government.—Trans-Ocean.

THE SOUL OF

WE have had so much of the atrocity stories dished out to us in books and pamphlets and heard of villages and towns that have been taken and retaken that we have ceased to trust all reports of the Spanish Civil War. But Peadar O'Donnell's "Salud," while frankly professing to be an account of a 'Red' nature takes us into the Spanish fracas. There is no re-creation in this account: there is no fixing of guilt on anyone. He merely acts as the chairman to new thoughts and released emotion seeking a platform.

His own political history as a quondam colleague of De Valera makes him the best man from whom to hear the story, for there are many ties between Ireland and Spain. He goes in search of a fishing village in Spanish territory to attend to his literary work, and finds himself moving from the village of Achill more and more into the centre of F. A. I. and the C. N. T. the powerful workers organisations carrying on the constructive work throughout the country. Now and then cast accusations of inactivity or betrayal.

After the Foreign Legion had revolted, Spain falls into the almost isolated village units, each one the vitals of the Spanish people.

The world-wide scare, which Fascist countries and Press have created, makes Madrid accept the bad name in a spirit of bravado, and change its slogan from "Viva F. A. I.-C. N. Often some comrade with personal grievances against the priest, runs amok and takes impish delight in leading men grown unreasonable by sudden stirrings of emotions and long dormant race memory to disgrace themselves.

Fascists come very little into the picture and if they do, it is to figure in reported acts of subversive tactics.

But when two cities are contending, such rumours must needs fly about; may even such deeds should occur.

In this matter-of-fact and almost dispassionate account, one can feel the Republican soil of a nation striving for coherence; and the author only trespasses on that self-imposed penance of sobriety of narration when he speaks of his own "Red" activities, and that in his dear Ireland.

Whenever he can he tries to impress on us that he is a good Catholic; and that possibly to show how near truth his account is.

Although he fails to convince the reader in this respect, he, nevertheless, achieves the distinction of being an honest commentator.

That alone, should recommend the book to all readers Red or "anti-Red."

Question Of British Protest Raised In House

Mr. Butler Hopes Situation Will Be Improved

The Government had not made official representations but the Japanese themselves had despatched a high officer to Nanking and to Hangchow early in February, and Mr. Butler understood that as a result, conditions had now improved.

Old Lady Tells Secret of Her Vigour

The writer of the following letter once suffered from rheumatism, headaches, and depression. Then one day a vigorous old lady told her the secret of good health. And now she writes to tell others how she discovered a wonderful sense of well-being and joy in life:—

"Kruschen was recommended to me by an old lady of seventy-two who can dance the Highland Fling like a young girl—thanks to Kruschen, which she has used for thirty years. She told me to take Kruschen Salts to try and cure a dull heavy headache from which I suffered every morning on waking. I was also troubled with rheumatism in both shoulders. Kruschen turned the trick. The headache disappeared and so did the rheumatism. I have continued taking Kruschen because it gives me a wonderful sense of well-being and enjoyment of life."—(Mrs.) F.B.W.

Kruschen is a combination of six natural salts which stimulate your liver, kidneys and digestive tract to healthy, regular activity. They ensure internal cleanliness, and keep the blood-stream pure.

THE "HEALTH DISEASE"

Marked divergences of opinion appear to characterize the attitude of leading physicians on different sides of the Atlantic in the matter of publicly emphasizing the dangers of disease and of parading symptoms before the popular mind. While members of the profession in the United States are industriously seeking to create a vogue for preventive medicine, so called, including blood tests, physical examinations, and "health education," certain prominent medical men on the other side of the Atlantic are seriously questioning the wisdom of these methods.

Recently, Dr. Oliver St. John Gogarty, fellow of the Royal College of Surgeons of Ireland, was quoted in "The Irish Times" as warning his hearers that "people may lose life in too much devotion to the pursuit of health." In the Free State, he said, with a falling population and in spite of a vast outlay for greater medical facilities, hospitals were returning records of more cases treated than ever before. "One might almost be led to the conclusion," remarked Dr. Gogarty, "that treatment was a cause of disease."

"There seems a suggestion that health is a brittle, vanishing, extraordinary, artificial, and temporary condition; that it has to be treated with medicine as if it were a disease. Thus it becomes truly a disease."

The "health disease" appears to be what affects a large portion of suffering humanity which would improve itself if it lifted its thought out of its morbid channel to a realisation that health should be, and is, normal and disease abnormal.

Combating Noise

Contradictions are the ways of man. Filling the air with sound, he is perpetually striving at the same time how to silence it for his own comfort. That benevolent monopoly, London Underground, is spending a lot of money just now in the electric welding of rail-lengths to minimise the rattle and roar of travel in the tubes. It is a step toward the day when there shall be such smoothness and enfolded silence on the tubes that the traveller will feel himself a "spirit sliding through deliberate bliss."

Yet there are on the Underground sounds that we would not willingly forgo. For years on the Inner Circle there was a voice which daily enriched the lives of millions with its resonant cry of "James Pawk, James Pawk." That voice has gone — it may be raised now in celestial choirs — but it has worthy successors. We read approving mention of a disembodied mechanical voice calling to passengers to stand clear of the doors, but when we heard the officer who has been blessed with the true railway voice troling forth his lusty lay, who would have him silenced?

Fairy Tale "Horrors"

Witches are altogether at a discount in other fields. Those who are growing old to-day must often wonder, as they see how the psyche of the child is studied and sheltered, how on earth they escaped with sound mind from the unbridled terrors with which their minds were surrounded. Nobody kept the children of an earlier day away from pictures (albeit not movies) or thoughts of the horrid wolf which devoured Red Riding Hood. Perhaps the psyches were sturdier in those days. Now it is decreed by the London censors that there are scenes in "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" upon which childish eyes must never grow wide, unless accompanied by an adult. These are the witch scenes, pronounced to be of a "horrific" character. To those who know Mr. Walt Disney, the idea of presenting that bright and charming personality as a purveyor of the horrific is simply funnier than Mickey Mouse, but cinema censors are a race apart. Never in the world have there been people like unto them, a fact which they feel called upon to demonstrate. So "Snow White" only gets an A certificate. The question is put, very pertinently, why the presence of an adult with the child spectator is supposed to purge the film of its corrupting or terrifying tendencies.

Park Playing Fields

The public paternalism which is laid upon children is not always repressive. There seems to be nothing but an essentially wholesome idea behind the country class-room project recently mooted by the London County Council. The first impulse is to cock a suspicious eye at any proposed encroachment on the Green Belt which is being established round London for the benefit of the people, but if any exception at all is to be made in favour of a "trespass," the claim of the children is for it. The L.C.C. new education programme of £5,000,000 will include the allotment of £1,500,000 for class rooms in the Green Belt, and eventually every child of more than 10 years, who cannot be provided for on pitches in the parks and like open spaces, will have the opportunity of attending, for at least one day in the week, the class rooms and playing fields of the Belt. Not to be outdone by the Socialist majority in the County Council, the London Area Conservative Organisation is airing a special plan to look after the girls. It is proposed that every school under the Board of Education at which girls attend will have a domestic science department, with compulsory subjects of homecraft, physical training, and citizenship. The scheme projects itself beyond the school days, and provides for the issue of graded certificates according to competency. These certificates would carry in subsequent domestic employment compulsory minimum wage rates. So every working man may yet have a model wife, and every household may employ a model maid.

Eight Licences Issued For Japan In 9 Months

AMERICAN ACTION ON POST INCIDENT

Shanghai, To-day.

The United States Consulate-General has made representations to the Japanese authorities requesting full investigation of the censor's banning of the "Evening Post and Mercury."

The result of this investigation is being closely followed, since it is felt that the "Evening Post" incident raises the whole question of Japanese rights to interfere with foreign mail.

In an editorial on the confiscation by the Japanese of the newspapers, the "Evening Post" says that the authorities of the paper have received indication that the ordinary postage payment made by them for transmission on the banned copies of the paper will not be refunded.

Further, there will be no compensation for the papers confiscated, which the journal says it has reason to believe have been destroyed.—Reuter.

BRITISH CLAIMS ON JAPAN

London, To-day.

Several Commons questions yesterday referred to the China-Japan hostilities.

The Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, Mr. Butler, answering said that there had been no serious hostilities in South China and consequently only minor interference with British interests, there or at Hong Kong. Such matters as had arisen had been the subject of representation. A certain measure of satisfaction had been obtained and several matters were still under discussion.

Mr. Butler later said that he was unable to give the exact figures or details of British claims against the Japanese Government as they had not yet finally been determined.

According to reports which had so far reached him the amount at present was in the region of £300,000 and a settlement would be expected as soon as the claims had been thoroughly investigated.—British Wireless.

GOVERNMENT CITES TREATY

London, To-day.

Eight licences for export of war material from the United Kingdom to Japan had been issued since July 1, 1937, said Captain Euan Wallace, parliamentary secretary to the Board of Trade, replying to Mr. B. Riley (Labour, Dewsbury) in the House of Commons yesterday. The total value of arms, ammunition and military and naval stores registered as consigned to Japan from July 1, 1937, to February 28, 1938, was £61,000.

Mr. Riley asked whether in view of the fact that the Japanese Government was carrying on an aggressive war it was consistent with the League Covenant that the British Government, as a member of the League, should issue licenses to the aggressor.

Captain Wallace replied that under the Anglo-Japanese Treaty of 1911, no prohibition may be imposed on exports to Japan unless a similar prohibition applies to all destinations.—Reuter.

FALMOUTH COMMISSION OIL REPORT

London, To-day.

A brief debate took place in the House of Lords on the recommendations of the Falmouth Commission which recently reported on the various methods of extracting oil from coal.

The Lord Privy Seal, Earl De La Warr, for the Government, agreed with other speakers regarding the vital interest of the question to the nation in time of war and also in time of peace.

He was unable to say what steps the Government proposed to take regarding the Commission's recommendations. He recalled that the Committee did not refuse to consider any of processes of extracting oil from coal providing they had reached a stage from which it was possible to draw economic conclusions and added that the Government had the whole question under serious consideration and were, at the present time, taking action and were examining a number of methods but could not go into details.

OIL SUPPLIES

Referring to the suggestion that the country's oil supplies were no better than they were a few months ago, Earl De La Warr assured the House that not only had Service stocks gone up but the Government had been giving attention, in conjunction with the oil companies, to the increasing of civil stocks. A great deal of consideration had also been given to the rationing of oil in time of war. Progress had been made on all these questions.—British Wireless.

The State Department announces that the note does in no sense constitute de jure recognition of Austria's conquest, and it therefore is no departure from the principle to which the United States is committed: that there must not be recognition of territorial changes effected by armed force.

Another note states that the United States Embassy in Vienna will henceforth be changed to a consulate-general.—Reuter.

CHINESE CLAIM AT HANGCHOW

The Chinese claimed another important victory over the Japanese around Hangchow and Fuyang following a series of heavy engagements in the past few days, culminating in the recovery of several strategic hills including Lion Hill and Green Dragon Hill, permitting the Chinese to dominate the Hangchow-Fuyang Highway. The Japanese garrison at Hangchow is menaced by the Chinese troops, who are maintaining close co-operation with the guerillas.

JAPANESE TROOPS

Latest Reports On Taierchwang Fighting

Hankow, To-day.

The battle for the possession of Taierchwang has been resumed. The Japanese are still holding parts of the south-eastern section of the town but the troops who are holding this quarter are isolated and have suffered such heavy losses that the Chinese regard their complete annihilation as only a matter of time.

Reports from the front declare that the moral of the Chinese troops at Taierchwang has been greatly stimulated by the arrival of fresh reinforcements. The Japanese troops in the south-eastern section of the town are receiving all their supplies and ammunition from the air.

That this method of provisioning has its distinct drawbacks was illustrated yesterday afternoon when ammunition destined for the Japanese troops were dropped behind the Chinese lines. Other reports from the front state that a Japanese supply train with 100 freight cars was held up and seized by the Chinese between Lincheng and Taierchwang.

Eighteen days of intense fighting in the biggest battle of the present Sino-Japanese hostilities has failed to alter the strategical position of the two armies engaged in deadly combat for the possession of the town of Taierchwang.

According to latest despatches reaching Shanghai, the Japanese have renewed their grip on the northern bank of the Grand Canal while the Chinese are still firmly established on the southern bank.

Both sides have suffered thousands of losses during the course of the last three weeks and enormous damage has been inflicted on the country with a wide radius of Taierchwang. Judging by these despatches, neither side is expected to be able to turn the battle in its favour during the next few days.

Apparently the Japanese are engaged in consolidating their positions before proceeding to launch fresh attacks which may take on the form of a movement to be carried out on the extreme eastern front with the object of cutting off the railway connection of Hsueh-Haichow on the Lunghai Railway.

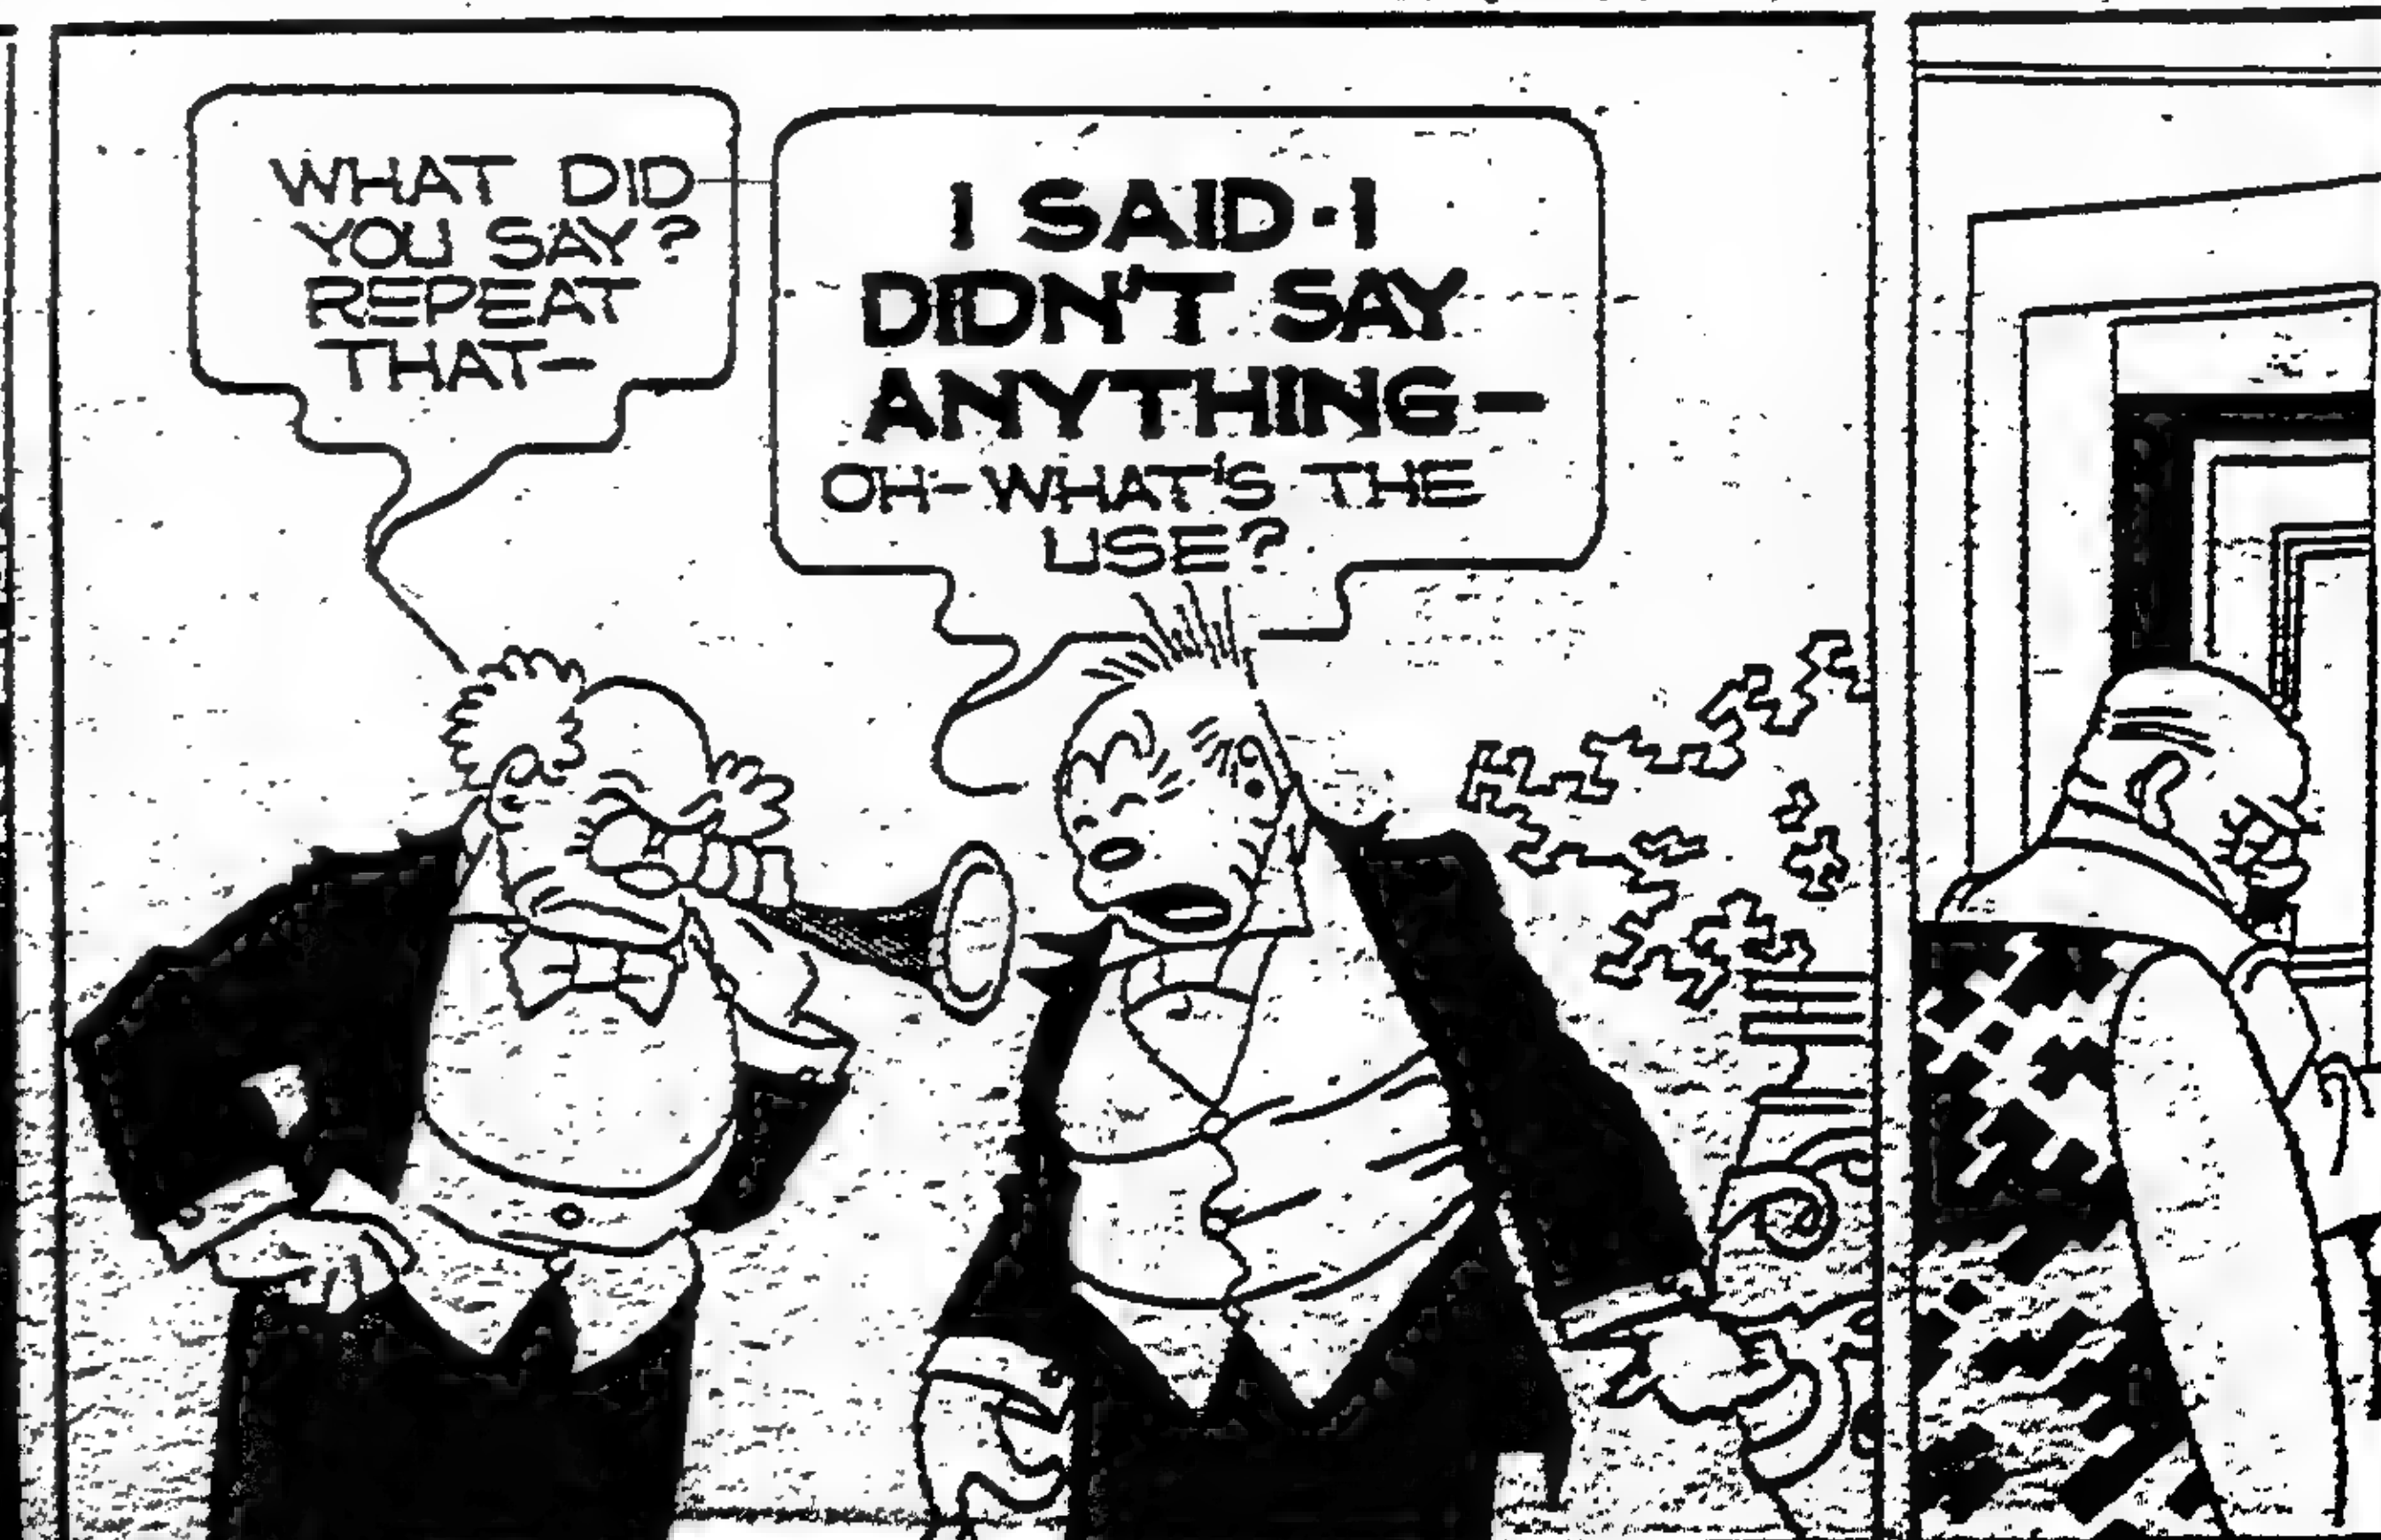

PLANES WITHDRAWN

The bulk of the Japanese aircraft, which had been engaged in heavy fighting that has been going on during the past fortnight to the north of the Tientsin-Pukow Railway, has been withdrawn from that region, according to Japanese reports, with a view to being used in other parts of China.—Trans-Ocean.

Sirdar Rumjahn Beats Lee Wai Tong

DRAWN OUT SINGLES MATCH: TSUI YAN PUI WINS

TWO matches in the Colony's Singles Championship were held at the H.K.C.C. yesterday, Sirdar Rumjahn disposing of Lee Wai-tong, on the stand court, in a long drawn out affair by 6-3, 8-6, while Tsui Yan-pui beat S. S. Hussain in 20 minutes by 6-1, 6-2.

The Rumjahn-Lee Wai-tong match was a dreary affair. The former had little control over his driving and was very poor overhead, but his biggest failure was in service—he double-faulted after holding match point at 5-4 and at 6-5, in the second set. Rumjahn double-faulted on seven occasions during the match, while Lee was at fault on three occasions.

Rumjahn made the mistake of playing to Lee Wai-tong's backhand, which was in perfect condition, and the winner only realised his error late in the second set when he changed his tactics and played to his opponent's forehand, Lee's weakest stroke, and this ultimately led to the latter's downfall.

ERRATIC DRIVING

Lee's service was in very good shape, but Rumjahn was ever on the alert and retrieved everything which came across the net, although there was little excuse for his erratic driving on the forehand.

There was little to complain of in the umpiring of the match which was in the hands of Mr. C. J. Tacchi.

SILLY ERRORS

Rumjahn secured a comfortable lead of 3-1 in the first set before Lee pulled out some excellent drop shots to take the fifth game. Rumjahn took the sixth after some clever play at the net, but Lee came back in the seventh when he lured Rumjahn into silly errors at the net. With the score at 4-3 in Rumjahn's favour, Lee Wai-tong cracked up badly and, failing with several drop shots gave the I.R.C. player the first at 6-3.

The second set provided a ding-dong struggle, Rumjahn ultimately leading at 5-4, but double-faulted. He took the next game, however, but double-faulted when he held vantage, in defence, Lee taking the 12th game to again square the issue. Rumjahn fought back brilliantly to take the next two games for set and match.

MEN'S BADMINTON SINGLES TITLE CHANGES HANDS

Patrick Wong's Lapse In Third Set

GOOD ENTERTAINMENT BY THE LADIES:

(By "REFEREE")

DISPLAYING perfect confidence in the final set, following a hard fought earlier stage, P. K. Hui, of the Hong Kong University, last night became the Colony Singles Badminton Champion, when he defeated Patrick H. Wong, the holder, by 15-7, 4-15, 15-4. The match which was held at the Taikoo Club, was witnessed by a fairly large gathering of spectators, and provided excellent entertainment throughout, Wong being seen at his best in the second set.

Hui's keen anticipation of Wong's next move paved the way for the majority of his points in the earlier stages of the first set, his fine service and net play having an unsettling effect on the holder, who never appeared to be at his ease.

Both players' coverage of the court was amazing, Wong's retrieving of smashes at the net and from the midcourt, catching Hui on the wrong foot on many occasions.

Actually Wong produced the better shots last night and it was only Hui's ability to retrieve anything which came over the net which ultimately paved the way for his victory. Hui's clearing shots down the side-lines, in the last set, when Wong was striving desperately to recover from his arrears, provided the turning point in the encounter.

ERRATIC SERVICE

Hui commenced service in the first set and took a lead of two points. The former established a clear lead in his second service, and with Wong losing his second service through being erratic, Hui jumped into a big lead of 8-1, at which stage a thrilling rally was featured with Hui smashing and cleverly angling the shuttle, but the holder was not to be denied, and brought off a brilliant coup by lobbing over Hui's head after drawing him to the net.

Hui's big lead had apparently demoralised Wong, who only managed to secure another three points before a midcourt smash ended his service. Hui, full of confidence, never looked behind from this stage and ultimately won the first set at 15-7.

HUPS FAILURE

The start of the second set was featured by the failure of the new champion to take Wong's earlier services, and by committing a series of blunders at the net, suddenly found himself 9-1 in arrears.

Hui commenced service, and the shuttle changed hands twice before the first point was scored from which stage Wong was master of the situation. Wong established a 7-0 lead before Hui secured his first ace as a result of brilliant net play, but Wong continued in fine form and finishing with a series of brilliant shots ran out winner of the second set at 15-4.

Hui never looked in the same class as Wong in this set, the former holder's shots being brilliantly executed and were practically winners from the moment the shuttle was struck.

FADED OUT

The third and final set provided a shock for the spectators as it was anticipated that Wong would seriously oppose Hui's challenge, but after a hard fought early stage, he fell away badly for Hui to emerge winner by 15-4.

The service changed hands on three occasions before the first point was scored, Wong going ahead by 2-0 and it looked as if he was going to retain his title, but two bad mistakes on the baseline, when Hui's clearing shots fell into the court, made him erratic and Hui went ahead to win comfortably.

Before the Singles Championship final commenced, a Ladies knockout tournament was held, eight pairs participating and providing excellent entertainment.

ALL-RECREIO FINAL

Miss M. Silva and Miss O. Ribeiro, of Club de Recreio, were featured in a thrilling first match, when they eliminated Miss W. M. Cheung and Miss U. Khoo by 21-11, the Recreio's girls' better understanding and variety of strokes carrying them to victory. There were no other surprises until the final round, when Miss M. Xavier and Miss M. Ribeiro caused an unexpected upset when they defeated the favourites, Miss Silva and Miss O. Ribeiro, in straight sets.

The latter pair had secured a substantial lead, but a series of mistakes at the baseline coupled with fine net play by Miss M. Xavier saw the tide turn and Miss Xavier and Miss Ribeiro took the first set at 15-11. The second and final set was very much a repetition of the first although the winners displayed more confidence at the net and ran out winners at 15-3.

SCOTLAND'S CALCUTTA CUP TRIUMPH

R. W. SHAW GIVES MEMORABLE DISPLAY AT TWICKENHAM

Greatest Player Of His Generation

"TRIPLE CROWN" SUCCESS NOT ANTICIPATED

England . . . 16 Points Scotland . . . 21 Points
(By AIR MAIL).

Glasgow, March 21.

ONE of Scotland's greatest Rugby victories was achieved on Saturday in the presence of Their Majesties the King and Queen, and before a record attendance at Twickenham.

POSSIBLY NO SCOTTISH FIFTEEN HAS BEEN SO GREATLY CRITICISED AS THAT SELECTED ORIGINALLY TO DO DUTY AGAINST WALES, AND AGAIN TO PLAY IRELAND. THAT A "TRIPLE CROWN" SUCCESS WAS LIKELY COULD NOT HAVE BEEN ANTICIPATED BY THE MOST FERVENT SCOTTISH FOLLOWER. YET THE "IMPOSSIBLE" WAS ACCOMPLISHED, AND FOR THE SECOND TIME IN 27 YEARS SCOTLAND WON AT TWICKENHAM; AND, WHAT IS MORE, DEFEATED A QUITE GOOD ENGLISH SIDE.

To what extent the victory depended upon R. W. Shaw, the captain and stand-off, cannot be gauged, but Shaw made a memorable appearance in a memorable match, and was carried off shoulder high by his team mates at the final whistle. No greater tribute could be paid to any player.

Apart from the fact that he was the captain, that he mustered the confidence to tell his colleagues that they could win, and win well; that he scored two brilliant tries, and generally rose to the occasion as none but he could do, he set the seal upon his personal fame, and made it Shaw's game and Shaw's year.

Few will doubt now that Shaw is the greatest Rugby player of his generation. It may be wrong to give laurels to one man when a whole team played well, but there are no words, no eloquence in the Rugby field, to emphasise the greatness of this single player.

Shaw was the man of this match just as he is the Rugby player of his time.

FULLBACK WAS AMAZED

Shaw's feats at Twickenham were great, yet not surprising. When he got the ball before going off for his tries, those who knew him could not conceive of his making any error. Only the English full back was amazed at the lightning-like thrust that carried Shaw past him.

Away from the personal aspect of Scotland's triumph, however, the whole team played well, and defeated a good side, who were by no means off their game. Strong wingers and resolute centres aided Shaw, but the main thing was that every man was a fighter.

England's rallies were of no avail against the hard tackling by the Scots, and though the victory was comparatively narrow in a high scoring game, there was no doubting the superiority of the Scots. Beaten for the ball, as was expected, they yet contrived to make greater use of their fewer chances. England's line was crossed five times, Scotland's only once. That speaks for itself.

MARRIED BY INFRINGEMENTS

It was a great game, but it was marred to some extent by obstruction and scrummaging infringements. One recalls that Scotland, though well beaten at Murrayfield last year, were severely handicapped by the latitude allowed the English half-backs and forwards.

After Saturday's game a former England "cap" expressed himself as being thankful Scotland won through, because of the scrummaging of his home pack. "We have the greatest pack in the four countries," he said, "but we don't need a great hooker like Toft if that is the way they are going to play."

R. W. Shaw, captain of Scotland's victorious Calcutta Cup Rugby team, is seen above.

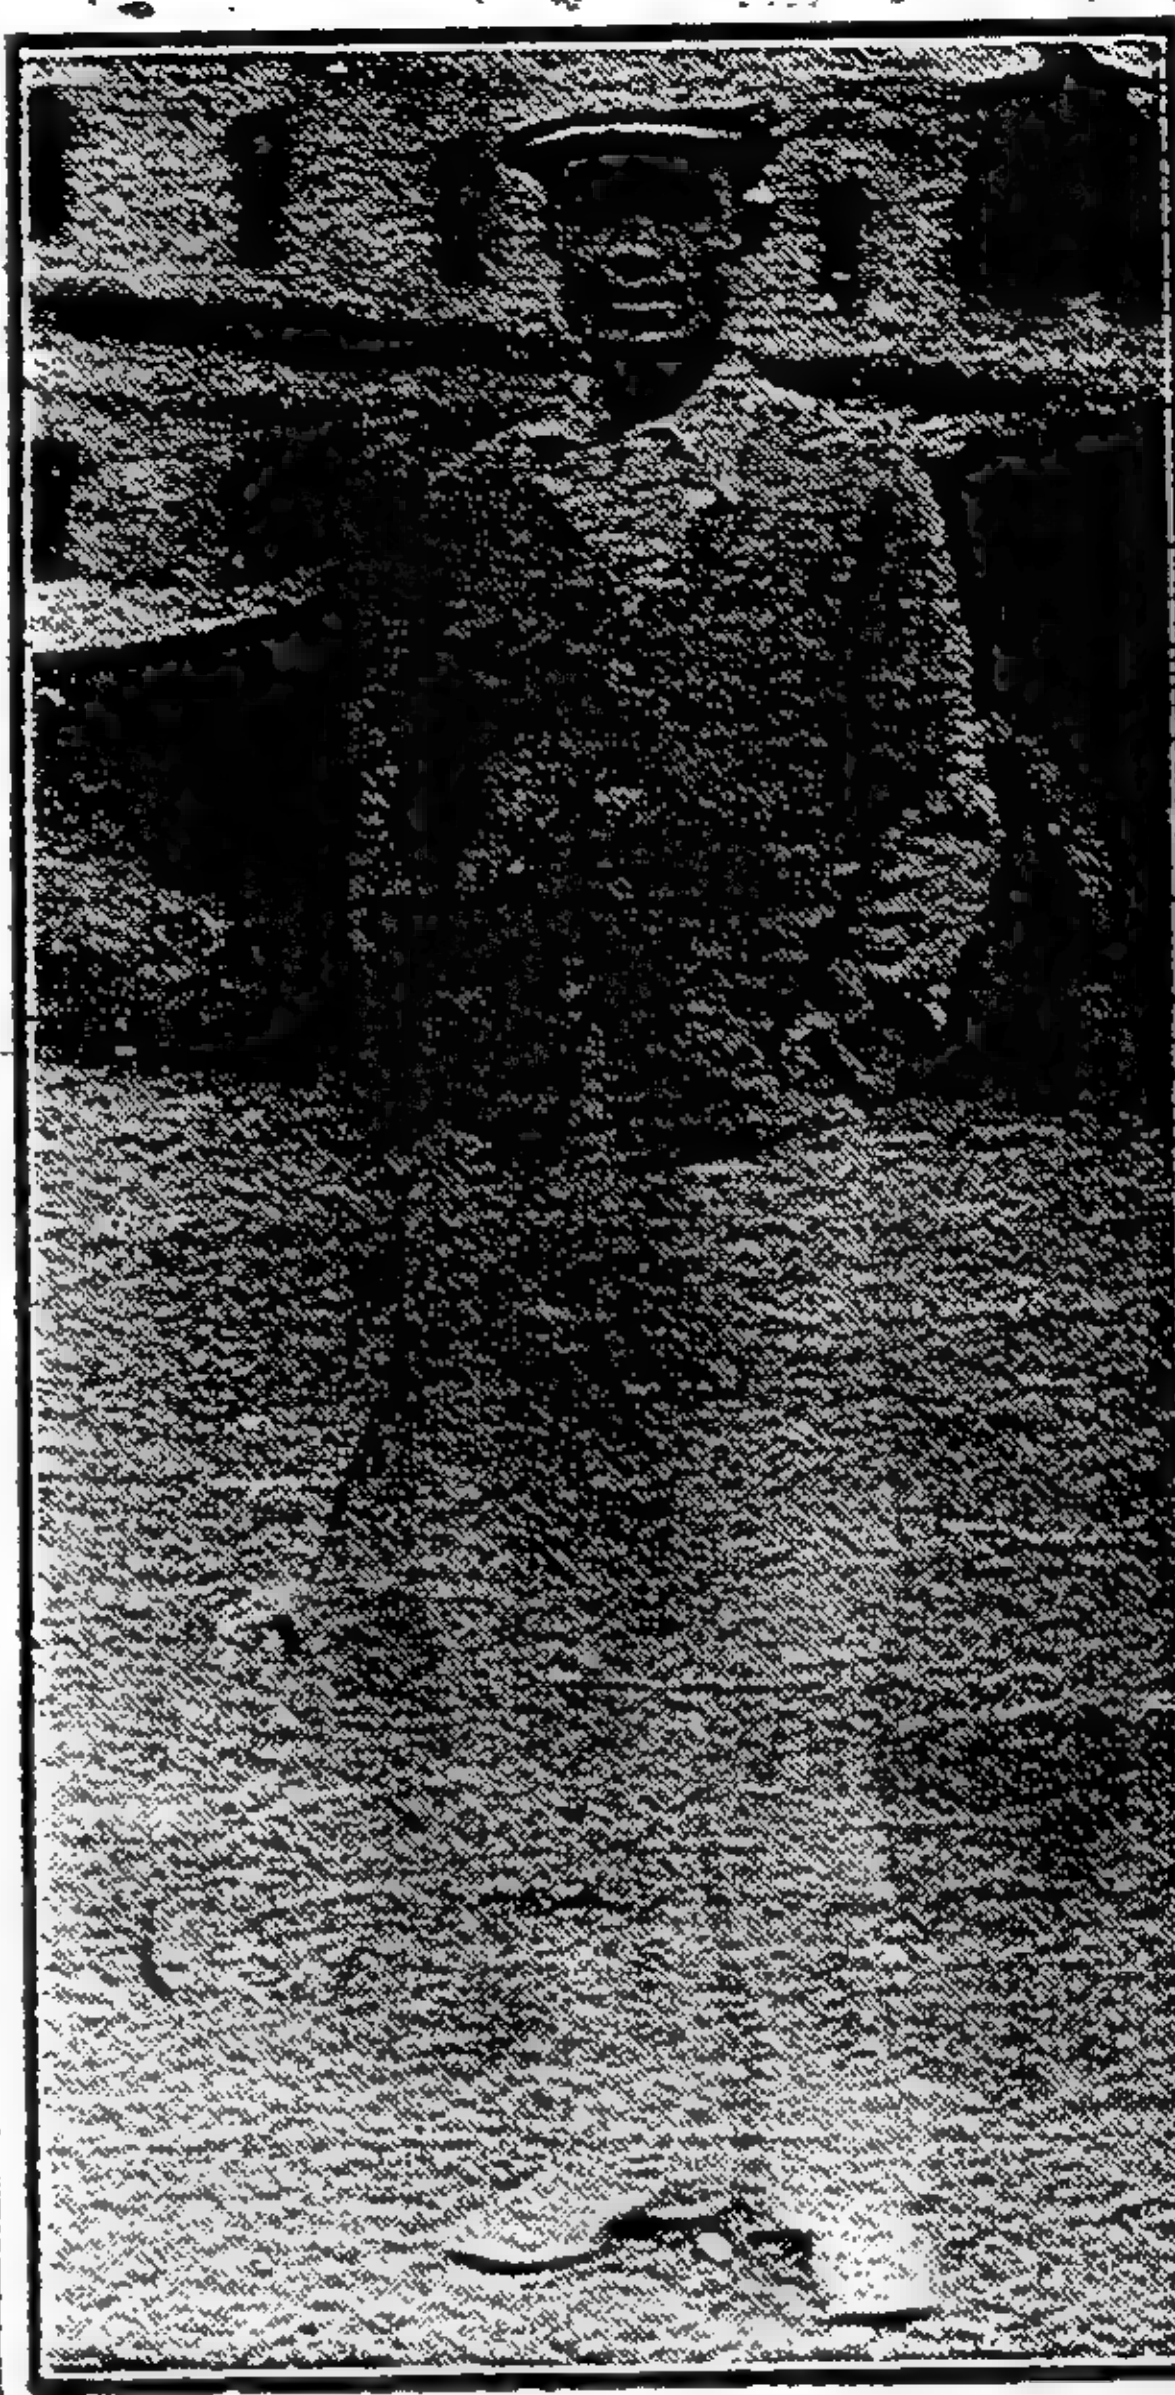

CORRESPONDENCE

Fair Play: Letters to the Editor or Sports editor for publication must carry the name and address of sender, otherwise they cannot be published.

Regarding the Brown Cup standing, owing to an incorrect tabulation of results by the C. B. School, I now learn that the "B" team lost their first encounter with Recreio Ladies, thereby placing them on level terms with 14 points each.

St. Andrew's Junior have also secured 14 points, which results in a triple tie.

I must, therefore, retract the statement which I erroneously published last Tuesday, to the effect that the C.B.S. "B" did win and that they have 16 points — "Sticks."

M. W. LO

M. W. LO WITHDRAWS

NO MORE SINGLES

(By "ADREM")

Followers of the local Tennis Championships now in progress will greatly be disappointed to learn of the withdrawal of M. W. Lo from the singles event.

He conceded a walk-over to H. S. Hussain, whom he was to have played yesterday afternoon. This step came as rather a surprise as Lo had shown very fine form in his engagements thus far in the tourney.

Actually, in many quarters, he was expected to seriously extend Tsui Yan-pui, his opponent in the next round, had he been successful yesterday afternoon, as was almost certain.

Lo told me yesterday morning that he had withdrawn because he did not feel up to the strain of the singles game. His entry had been entirely experimental as he wished to try himself out. With the advent of the hot weather and the calls of business, however, he decided that he would not be able to do himself justice if he continued.

BRIDGE NOTES

By ELY CULBERTSON

How Good Are You?

Mr. Culbertson is conducting, through this column, an examination of bridge players. Rate yourself by subtracting from 100 the points for each wrong answer.

Questions 7 and 8 in the National Self-Rating Bridge Examination appeared yesterday. They were:

Question 7. Both sides vulnerable. You are South. North, your partner, dealt and bid two no trump. East passed. Your holding is:
S.—Q 4 2, H.—A J 6, D.—K 7 3, C.—7 5 4 3.

What call do you make?

Answer. You should give a double raise. Bid four no trump. You would raise to three if you held only one king. The other honours you hold amply justify a slam-try. (Two points' demerit for any bid other than four no trump, except five no trump, for which there is only one point demerit.)

Question 8. Both sides vulnerable. You are South, the dealer. Your hand is:

S.—A Q 10 5, H.—A J 4 3 2, D.—2, C.—10 6 4.

Answer. You should open the bidding with one spade. If you open with one heart (the only alternative) you will be embarrassed for a rebid if partner responds with either one no trump or two diamonds. By first bidding one spade, you reserve the comfortable rebid of two hearts. (One point demerit for bidding one heart; 2 points' demerit for any other call.)

TO-DAY'S QUESTIONS

Question 9. Your opponents are vulnerable; you are not. You deal and pick up this hand:

S.—2, H.—None, D.—K Q 10 9, C.—6 5 3.

What call do you make?

Question 10. You are vulnerable; your opponents are not. You are South. West deals and the bidding proceeds as follows:

West—North—East—South
1 spade—Double—3 spades—?

Your holding is:

S.—6 5 4 2, H.—9 7 6 5 3, D.—K 4 3, C.—7.

What call do you make?

TO-DAY'S HAND

South, dealer.

Both sides vulnerable.

NORTH

S.—J 4
H.—7 5 3 2
D.—Q 7 5 2
C.—10 8 4

WEST

S.—5 3 2
H.—K J 9 8
D.—10 8
C.—9 6 3 2

EAST

S.—Q 10 9 8 7
H.—A 6
D.—9 4 3
C.—K 7 5

SOUTH

S.—A K 6
H.—Q 10 4
D.—A K J 6
C.—A Q J

The bidding:

South—West—North—East
2 no trump—Pass—3 no trump—Pass

West opened the eight of hearts, and the defenders collected four heart tricks before the declarer could draw his breath. On the third round East signalled with the ten of spades, completing the echo on the fourth trick. Declarer also let go a spade. West shifted to his top spade. Declarer won, and cashed the ace and king of diamonds, noting with pleasure that both opponents followed suit. The diamond jack then was overtaken with the queen, and a club was led and finessed. Now the six of diamonds to dummy's seven provided an entry for a repeated club finesse, and the fulfillment of the contract.

The hand was simple but still worthy of note. Declarer had to discard properly on the fourth heart, carefully retaining his own second entry to dummy. The curious feature and the lucky one for declarer was that he held the diamond six and North the seven spot, instead of vice versa.

SOUTH CHINA LANDING: CLASH REPORT UNCONFIRMED

Canton, To-day. Following the arrival in South China waters of seven additional Japanese warships, it is reliably reported that an attempt was made yesterday by a force of about five hundred marines to land at Tongkawan.

The reports reaching here state that sharp skirmishes occurred over a period of several hours and that the landing was effectively resisted, with upwards of a hundred casualties, killed and wounded, inflicted on the Japanese landing parties.

Chinese casualties are reported to have been heavier. They were subjected to heavy shellfire by two destroyers which stood in the bay covering the Japanese landing.—Our Own Correspondent.

ALL DAY FIGHTING

Hua Nan's report on the incident states:

Several hundred Japanese marines, under cover of heavy artillery bombardment by two Japanese warships, disembarked at a point in the outer harbour of Tongkawan, Chungshan District, early yesterday morning and were stoutly resisted by Chinese militia and regular troops. Fighting lasted the whole day and up to last evening the Japanese marines had still failed to establish their position on shore.

Another group of Japanese marines attempted a landing at Kin-Mo from three motor-boats. Their landing was preceded by a heavy machinegun fire.—Hua Nan.

STRONG REINFORCEMENT

Private messages received in the Colony state that over 2,000 Japanese marines have been landed on Tong Kwan Island during the past two days and that there are no less than 3,000 Japanese scattered on different islands now in their possession off the Chung Shan District coast.

It is also stated that 10 additional Japanese gunboats have arrived in South China waters recently.

OFFICIAL REPORT

Canton, To-day.

Official quarters here say that they have no reports of any attempted landing, though it is known that five warships shelled Tongkawan.—Our Own Correspondent.

IN LION'S DEN

Tientsin, To-day.

Leaflets of Communistic nature are being distributed here and in Peiping, and under the nose of the Japanese authorities. Officials of the Eighth Route Army have been in conference with leaders in the two cities.

The Japanese military are instituting house-to-house searches. No one has yet been arrested.—Our Own Correspondent.

STOP PRESS

TEL. 20022 or 33993

New York, To-day.

President Roosevelt will shortly seek the authority of Congress to devote $1,500,000,000 in an attempt to revive American business, according to the Washington correspondent of the "New York Daily News."

The money will be granted to states and cities in the form of loans without interest to finance housing and public works.

The programme is designed to be in full operation before the end of July.—Reuter.

London, To-day.

Labour is rejoicing at its success in the West Fulham by-election, the eighth Labour gain in forty-five by-elections since the last General Election, and it is pointed out that the Labour Party has not lost a seat in a by-election for over two years.

Labourites regard the result as an indictment of the Government's foreign policy, but the "Daily Telegraph," in a leader, attributes the defeat of the Conservative candidate to the opposition campaign of misrepresentation.

The journal declares there is no reason to suppose that the country will follow the example of West Fulham.

Dr. Edith Summerskill, the successful Labour candidate, is the daughter of a doctor and the wife of Dr. Jeffrey Samuel, but uses her maiden name for political purposes.—Reuter.

CHINESE PLANES VISIT SHANGHAI

Shanghai, To-day.

For the first time in months, Chinese planes visited the Shanghai area in daytime yesterday, according to Chinese reports.

These reports say that a squadron flew over the western district of Lunghwa at 7 o'clock yesterday morning reconnoitring.

Japanese troops are reported to have fired on the planes with anti-aircraft guns, without success.

The Chinese machines retired in a south-westerly direction after circling for about half an hour.

The same reports state that several Japanese planes subsequently took to the air apparently in search of the Chinese machines.—Reuter.

FAR-FETCHED CLAIM

Shanghai, To-day.

Far-fetched claims are made by the Japanese who assert that their troops have reached a point six kilometres north of Hsueh-wu and that one detachment is one kilometre south-east of the city.

It is, however, established that fighting at Taierschwang is continuing with both sides in much the same position as yesterday.—Our Own Correspondent.
